SENATOR SHERMAN WELCOMED. An Enthusiastic Greeting From His Friends-His Eloquent Reply.

Republican Ohio, so far as it is represented in Washington, could be found at 8 o'clock last night in front of 1319 K street northwest, whither it had gone to give welcome to Senator John Sherman, who has just returned from Europe. A few there were in the crowd who had shouted loudly and at length for the recently-deceased administration, but they had evidently repented.

Shortly after 7:30 o'clock the Buckeyes formed in processional order near the Ebbitt house and, with Prof. Sousa and the Marine band leading them, they marched toward K street, marshaled by Col. D. A. Grosvenor and M. M. Holland. Before the Senator's residence was reached the pent up enthusiasm broke forth and the moist atmosphere was filled with tumultuous and irregular vocal effort. When the multitude had settled itself in front of and as near as possible to the house and had ceased to cheer, the Marine band struck up a selection of popular airs until Senator Sherman, accom-panied by Representative Charles H. Grosvenor, appeared in the doorway.

GEN. GROSVENOR'S SPEECH OF WELCOME. To Gen. Grosvenor had been assigned the duty of formally welcoming the Senator, and awarded the first grand prize and diploma at the Rockville fair for the great superiority of the light-running Domestic. The Montgomery people seem to know how to arm Montgomery Ohio looked for the Senator's return; referred happily to the Senator's wife and daughter. and then launched out upon the broad ocean of Ohio politics. He closed by saying that one of the chief causes of Ohio republican exultation on this occasion lay in the fact that the Senator had returned to do nobly his part toward the re-election of Gov. Foraker and the elec-tion of a republican Senator to succeed Mr.

Payne. The welcome was punctuated with applause and when the speech and the uproar had ceased the band played "Home Again." The crowd cheered once more as Senator Sherman stepped forward and commenced his reply.

SENATOR SHERMAN'S REPLY. Appreciation of the welcome which had been extended to him by friends from Ohio and friends in Washington brightened his opening remarks and he said that, although his home was in Ohio, yet he had been so long a resident of this city that he felt himself almost entitled to the rights of citizenship here without, of course, losing his allegiance to the people of his rative state. The joys of home and the pleasures of foreign lands were dilated upon and the Senator said: "No American can travel anywhere without having a stronger love and affection for his native land. This is the feeling of every American, and it is sometimes too strongly and noisily expressed to be acceptable abroad. We do sometimes carry our flag too high and flaunt it offensively." Previous visits to Europe were referred to, and the Senator went on: "And now let me say to you that while we boast in America of the rapid progress we have made in growth, population, wealth and strength, yet it is equally true that some of the oldest nations in the world are now keeping pace with us in industry, progress and even in liberal institutions. Everywhere in these old countries the spirit of nationalism is growing stronger and stronger.

POLITICAL CHANGES IN EUROPE. "Thirty years ago Italy had at least five different forms of government; now it is under one rule. Twenty-two years ago France was an empire, under the almost absolute dominion of Napoleon III; now it is a republic, with all the forms of republican institutions, but without the stability of our government. The kingdom of Prussia has been expanded into the great German empire, among the strongest, if not the strongest, military power in the world. The institutions of Great Britain have become liberalized until it is a monarchy only in name, the queen exercising far less power than the President of the United States. The whole tendency of events is to strengthen and at the same time popularize government.'

The popularity of Americans in Europe was mentioned, and it was said of them that while abroad they were not partisans, but patriots; they believed that any party at home was better than all parties in foreign lands. The signs of war abroad and of peace in the United States were sketched, and the veterans who fought for the Union were eulogized and said to be entitled to the most liberal treatment. The republican party having saved the Union should be the governing party, and it should be heartily supported by all true patriots.

OTHER ADDRESSES. At the conclusion of the Senator's speech fully 1,500 people went forward and shook hands with him. Later addresses were delivered by Auditor Coulter, Gov. Lyons, Rev. Wm. Waring, ex-Minister J. H. Smyth and ex-Speaker Warren J. Keifer.

Quite a number of callers were received in the house by Mrs. and Miss Sherman.

Amusements Next Week. Albaugh's.-The "Sea of Ice" will be at Albaugh's grand opera house on Monday evening with Mr. Creston Clarke as Carlos, the adventurer. Mr. Clarke comes honestly by his histronic talent for he is a son of John S. Clarke and a nephew of Edwin Booth. Thrilling situations are not rare in the performance and the combination of a first-class company and great scenic and mechanical effects is surprising

HARRIS' BIJOU.—Preparations have been com-pleted for a week of extraordinarily heavy business at Harris' Bijou theater next week for Lillian Lewis, whose merit as an actress is established, will present a series of her best characters. The repertoire includes some of the most popular of modern plays. KERNAN'S .- The Great American Four and Frank Cushman's Specialty company will be the attractions at Kernan's during the coming week. A bill of more than ordinary merit has been prepared and the company promises that it will be presented in the usually smooth and satisfactory manner.

The Veteran Firemen.

The Veteran firemen's association of this city, after participating in the celebration in Baltimore on Monday, was called out twice during the week. Late Tuesday night a telegram was received stating that the Brooklyn veterans would be here next morning. A delegation met the visitors on Wednesday and escorted them to the President's house and thence to Edel's hall, where Mrs. Edel had prepared a handsome lunch. After spending a few hours in sight-seeing they were escorted to the depot and left for home. The company, including band, numbered 120 men in dark uniforms, but they did not bring their handsome engine which took the prize in Baltimore.
On Thursday the Washington veterans were again called out to attend the funeral of their fellow member, Mr. Conrad Kaufman. The deceased was a member of the Columbia fishing club on their annual trip to Munday's Point, Va., where he was taken with cholera morbus on Monday and died in a few hours. The funeral took place at the Church of the Reformation, and it was one of the largest ever seen in that section of the city. The services were by Rev. Mr. Parsons and the interment was at Glenwood cemetery.

READY FOR STUDIES. The Opening of the School Year and

Where to Send the Children. The boy who said he didn't understand all this fuss about the months that had an "r" in them anyway; that he hated oysters, and he thought the "r's" stood for "reading, riting and rithmetic," as he had to go to school during all those months, has now come in for his legacy. Schools are opening all over the country, and the great number of institutions as noted in the columns of THE STAR show anew the great advantages of Washington and its immediate vicinity as an educational center.

The law school of the Georgetown university will open its doors for an introductory lecture and announcements for ensuing term on October 2, at 6:30 p.m. Those interested are invited to be present at that time. This institu-tion is noted for its eminent lecturers, among them being Hon. W. D. Richardson, Hon. Chas. P. James, Martin F. Morris, Hon. Jeremish Wilson, Hon. Andrew C. Bradley, Jos. J. Darlington and Geo. E. Hamilton. The library at the law building has also been greatly in-creased since last term, and now comprises the English and leading American reports and text books upon most legal subjects. The secre-tary, Mr. S. M. Yeatman, will send circulars and any information on application.

The attention of parents living in the northwest section of the city is invited to a new school for small girls and boys, which will be opened on September 25 at 1429 20th street. It will be under the care of Miss Emilie M. Halstead, who has been a successful teacher of young children in New England and brings the highest references from many of the best edu-cational people, both in New England and New Courses in English, French, German, mathematics, drawing, civil engineering, mineralogy, physics, chemistry, &c., are offered, and Prof. E. T. Fristoe, who is the dean of the faculty, will be glad to send any information. Mr. Henry Xander will resume his lessons in the practice and theory of the piano on September 9. His studio is at 809 11th street. A day and boarding school for young ladies and little girls, where pupils are admitted to Wellesley on certificate of the principal, is found in the McDonald-Ellis school, 1305 17th street, 1624 Massachusetts avenue and 1623 N street. This school offers many advantages in its home-life and thorough course of study. Its seventh year begins on September 25. At the National academy of fine arts, 804 E street northwest, Mrs. L. R. Morrell will continue to give lessons in drawing and painting. Mrs. Morrell has studied fifteen years in Europe and received a number of medals. Her studio is always open to visitors.

Mr. J. W. Reynolds has his studio at 509 11th street. He guarantees to teach any one to make a life-size crayon portrait in fifteen les-sons with no former knowledge of drawing necessary.

The school at 1127 13th street, under the management of the Misses Pollock and Noerr, will reopen on September 18. This institution offers primary and grammar departments, kindergarten and a training class for teachers. The Fauquier institute for young ladies at Warrenton, Va., will commence its twenty-ninth session on September 12. This institution combines excellent instruction with good air. It has a fine situation in the Piedmont region of Virginia, being 55 miles from Wash ington and on the line of the Richmond and Danville railroad. For any information address the principal, George C. Butler, A.M. Instructions on the violin can be obtained from Wm. F. Krause at 600 6th street. The evening sessions at the Business School. 1409 New York avenue, will commence on October 1, and there will be competent instructors in all the English branches, French, German book keeping, stenography, short-hand and

A Colored Committee Coming Here. The National Colored Baptist association at Indianapolis yesterday appointed a committee representing twenty states to call upon President Harrison and Attorney General Miller to present the resolutions of the organization demanding protection for the colored race in the south. They will proceed to Washington immediately after the adjournment of the convention. The committee was authorized to appeal to colored people throughout the country to contribute to a fund for the assistance of the Baptist delegates who were assaulted by a mob on the train at Baxley, Tenn., in prosecuting damage suits against the railroad company.

REMEMBER tomorrow, Sunday, September 15, last day at Colonial Beach.

Sullivan's Candidacy Merely a Dodge. A Boston special to the Philadelphia Inquirer says there is abundant reason for believing that the letter of John L. Sullivan announcing himself as a candidate for Congress was written with a view of affecting public sentiment in Mississippi and gubernatorial sympathy there also and thus prevent his incarceration. Exactly how this effect is to produced is not made clear, but it is said that as a democratic candidate for Congress the democratic governor, Lowrie, and the demo-cratic judges who have the case under appeal would have a fellow feeling for the new-fledged political aspirant, which would make them wondrous kind in their judgments toward the ex-slugger and fellow-partisan.

Many Clerks in a Conspiracy. About four weeks ago John Denier was arrested in Scranton, Pa., and put under bail for being a party to the conspiracy by which a large amount of goods was stolen from T. F. Leonard's hardware store, John Donnelly, a clerk, into whose good graces he had insinuated himself, having fallen a victim to the plot. Yesterday morning a sensation was created by the arrest of eight persons who are implicated in the affair as accomplices, several of them being highly respectable business men. They were Alexander Gross, Abe Goldman, Max Goldberg, N. Shipman, Herman Denier, Wm. Bowie, Wm. Ackerson and Chas. H. Stroh. It is said that about fifty clerks are on the list for stealing from their places of business and will be arrested very shortly.

It was a Case of Extortion.

The order of arrest granted to Alice Fitzgerald against Internal Revenue Inspector A. A. Vendenburgh of Buffalo was set aside yesterday by Judge Ehrlich in New York. The complainant sued Mr. Vendenburgh for $3,000. which she claimed to have loaned him, and also for breach of promise. When the case came up for trial it was shown by Mr. Vendenburg's counsel that the suit was brought for a malicious purpose and to extort money from his client.

The Charity Conference.

In the national conference of charities and corrections at San Francisco yesterday John Glenn of Maryland gave an encouraging statement of the affairs of the Johns Hopkins university. Dr. C. Irving Fisher of Massachusetts read an essay on hospitals. Mrs. C. W. Bohman of Stockton, Cal., advocated the recognition of the kindergarten system by the state. The conference decided to hold the next session at Portland, Ore. At the evening session the report of the committee on charity organization was presented and ad-dresses were made by Mrs. Evans on scientific charity and by A. G. Warner of Nebraska on "Our charities and our churches."

Robinson of the It says there are three different methods of attaining closer trade relations between Canad his staff. Mr. Robinson states that there will be a and the United States—first, the political union of the two countries; second, commercial union, involving the maintenance by the two countries of a common tariff against all other countries, and a common internal revenue sys-tem of taxation with some equitable division of tem of taxation with some equitable division of the receipts; third, a treaty of reciprocity ad-mitting some or all of the products of either country into the other free of duty. In conclu-sion it says that free commercial relations with Canada can be obtained by a reciprocity treaty whenever our government is ready to take the necessary steps for its negotiation.
